July 29 - Did the Military Rites for non-member Mr Terry Eaton.

Up-coming event: We will be doing our 9/11 Memorial at the front of the Post at 10:00 A.M. Try to attend this, as we honor all the HERO'S of the tragic day. This memorial will only take no longer than 15 minutes.

The Honor Guard can use your help.. Our M1 Garand Rifles must be very clean to operate properly. If you have any of the following goodies you don't need, or have excess of, please donate the items to our group. This will keep our expenses down. What we need is:

Bore brushes in 30 cal. Both cloth & wire brushes are needed.

Gun Scrubber solvent/degreaser spray.

Gun solvent in liquid form

Gun oil in liquid or spray form.

Patches

We do not need any cleaning rods.

See you on 9/11, at the Post. We'll be there, rain or shine.

NEWS FROM THE CHAPLAIN

Today's spotlight falls on a member of the legendary "Flying Tigers". The name "Flying Tigers" evokes memories of the famous airmen of the "American Volunteer Group" (AVG) that fought with great distinction in the Chinese Air Force in Southeast Asia. The AVG never had more than 55 combat aircraft, capable of flight, and never more than 70 trained pilots at any time in their 7 months of service. The AVG lost only 8 pilots while being paid for 286 Japanese aircraft shot down and officially claimed as "kills". Many other Japanese "probable's" littered the jungle floor, but lacked the needed confirmation. These men were volunteers from the Army, Navy and Marine Corp. that fought for justice, honor, glory and money according to their own priorities. They were led by General Claire Lee Chennault, who had been in China since the mid-thirties. In China, equipped with P-40's he developed the basic fighter plane tactics that American fighter pilots would use throughout the war.

Tomorrow (14 August, 2010) I will conduct funeral services for one of the last few remaining "Flying Tigers" of WW11.

On the 11th of August, 2010, Anthony (Tony) J. Perry passed away, aged 94 years. He was preceded in death by his wife Euretta. Surviving are his children, Loretta (Gordon) Ihrig, James (Aimee) Perry, Mark (Mellisa) Perry, stepson Charles Young. Seven grandchildren, several nieces and nephews. Tony proudly served his country in the U.S. Army, 407th Fighter Squadron, 372nd Fighter Group. The funeral service 14 August, 2010 at Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens Chapel, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

A word of wisdom...

"There is no guarantee on tomorrow or the next hour, just be sure to tell your loved ones when they leave for school, work, or play that you love them. If something should happen, you will have that peace that they knew you loved them."

On the lighter side...

The young man went to his preacher and said " I need you to pray for my hearing". The preacher placed his hands on each side of the young man's head and prays and prays. When he's done, he asks the young man " how's your hearing now?" "I don't know" say's the young man. "I don't go to Court until next Monday."
